

Determining if you are a class member. The plaintiff class includes, generally, children who, while they are or were 3-to-5-years-old, (1) were not identified and served with needed special education and related services, (2) did not receive timely evaluations and eligibility determinations for special education services, or (3) did not receive smooth and effective transitions from Part C Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA) services to Part B IDEA services at age 3.

Class members' right to review the motion. If you believe that you or a child for whom you are a parent or guardian is a class member, and would like to review the fee application that is at issue, you may contact counsel for plaintiffs or defendants at the following addresses:

Counsel for plaintiffs: Todd A. Gluckman, Terris, Pravlik & Millian, LLP, 1816 12th Street, NW, Suite 303, Washington, DC 20009, (202) 204-8482, tgluckman@tpmlaw.com.

Counsel for defendants: Honey Morton, Assistant Attorney General, 400 Sixth Street, NW, Suite 10100, Washington, DC 20001, (202) 724-6591, honey.morton@dc.gov.

Class members' right to object to the motion. Class members have the right to file objections to plaintiffs' motion. The Court will consider your views. To object, you must send a signed letter stating that you object to Plaintiffs' December 23, 2020 Consent Motion for an Award of Attorneys' Fees and Expenses in DL v. District of Columbia, Civil Action No. 05-1437 (RCL). Be sure to include your name, address, telephone number, email address (if any), and signature. Set out in clear language the reasons why you object. Your objection, if any, must be mailed or delivered to all of the following addresses such that it is postmarked or received no later than March 26, 2021, which is 45 days from the date that the notice was posted on the Court's website:
