

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

In re LORAZEPAM & CLORAZEPATE ANTITRUST LITIGATION

This Document Relates to:

ADVOCATES HEALTH CARE;
ST. CHARLES HOSPITAL &
REHABILITATION CENTER; DIK DRUG
COMPANY and HARVARD PILGRIM
HEALTH CARE, INC., on behalf of themselves and all others similarly situated,

Plaintiffs,

v.

MYLAN LABORATORIES, INC., et al.

Defendants.

MDL No. 1290 (TFH)
Misc. No. 99ms276
Judge Thomas F. Hogan

FILED

NOV 18 2002

Case No.: 1:99cv00790, NANCY MAYER WHITTINGTON, CLERK
Consolidated with U.S. DISTRICT COURT
Case No.: 99 c 2228
(U.S. District Court for the District of Illinois)

ORDER APPROVING MOTION TO EXCEED PAGE LIMIT

For good cause shown and there being no opposition to the motion, pursuant to Local Rule 7.1(e), the Court grants Class Plaintiffs' Motion for leave to exceed the 25 page limit on their reply memoranda of law to be submitted on November 14, 2002 in support of Class Plaintiffs' Motion for Curative Notice to Certain Class Members.

SO ORDERED this the 11 day of November, 2002.

Honorable Thomas F. Hogan
Chief Judge, United States District Court