- If default is being requested for a company, corporation or other business entity, only the Affidavit in Support of Default should be filed. If the defendant is a person, the Military Affidavit must be submitted in addition to the Affidavit in Support of Default.
- The Clerk's Office will fill out a default form and file it electronically, therefore it is not necessary to submit a proposed default form at the time the affidavit is filed.

- If service was made on a domestic or foreign corporation or upon a partnership or other unincorporated association, the return of service must show in which capacity the individual served accepted service. (Officer, Managing or General Agent, or any other agent authorized to receive process)
- If the return postal receipt is not signed by the party named in the summons, the affidavit of service must give specific facts from which the Court can determine that the person who signed the receipt meets the appropriate qualifications for receipt of process as set forth in Rule 4(d) of the Superior Court for the District of Columbia.
- If the judgment is based upon a promissory note, the original note must be submitted along with the request for default/judgment.

- Affidavits must be signed by plaintiff's attorney.
- The amount in the affidavit for default/judgment cannot exceed the amount prayed for in the complaint.
- If the request for default or default/judgment is for more than one party and the forms supplied by the Clerk do not contain enough space to accommodate all this information, Counsel should draft his/her own forms, tracking the language contained in the Clerk's Office forms.
