

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

NOTICE OF PROPOSED LOCAL RULE CHANGE AND OPPORTUNITY TO COMMENT

The United States District Court for the District of Columbia at its January Executive Session approved the publication of the following proposed rule changes for notice and comment.

Proposed Rules Changes

1. Amend LCvR 7(o)(5) as redline indicates:

An amicus brief shall comply with the requirements set forth in FRAP 29~~(e)(1)-(6)(a)(4)~~.

[The purpose of this change is simply to reflect the renumbering of the FRAP.]

2. Delete LCvR 7.1.

[LCvR 26.1 covers exactly the same topic and is slightly more extensive, so there is no need for duplicative rules.]

Pursuant to Local Civil Rule 1.1 (b), the Court is required to advise that the proposed rule will be adopted unless modified or withdrawn by the Court after receiving comments from organized bar associations, members of the bar, and the public. Such comments must be made in writing by February 28, 2018 and should be addressed to Kevin M. Hodges, Esq., Chairman, Advisory Committee on Local Rules, Williams & Connolly Procter LLP, 725 Twelfth St., N.W; Washington, DC 20005.

ANGELA D. CAESAR, CLERK
