

AMENDED COMPLAINTS

Before filing an amended complaint, be sure to review FRCvP 15 which details when an amended complaint is permitted to be filed.

If an amended complaint is permitted to be filed as of right or pursuant to a scheduling order or other previously determined deadline, follow these instructions to file the *Amended Complaint:

1. Log in to ECF.
2. Select CIVIL on the blue menu bar.
3. From the Complaints and Other Initiating Documents menu, select Amended Complaint and click [SUBMIT].
4. Select the plaintiff(s) filing the amended complaint.
 - a. To select more than one filer, hold the <Ctrl> key down and click on each appropriate name until all are highlighted.
 - b. If a new plaintiff is being added to the amended complaint, click [New Filer] and add the new party.
 - c. REMEMBER:
 - i. Party names are entered in ALL CAPS.
 - ii. SEARCH first before adding a new party to the database.
 - iii. Change the role of the party to PLAINTIFF.
 - iv. DO NOT add an address for the party.
 - v. Add party text, if applicable.
 - vi. To review the tutorial and instructions on Entering Party Names, go to our website: <http://www.dcd.uscourts.gov/attorney-civil-case-opening-information>
 - d. Continue to add as many new plaintiffs as needed.
 - e. Once the appropriate filers have been selected, click [Next].
 - f. Note: If a party is no longer named as a plaintiff in the amended complaint, do not select it as one of the filers. The Clerk's Office will follow up and terminate that plaintiff from the case.
5. Select the defendant(s) named in the amended complaint.
 - a. To select more than one defendant, hold the <Ctrl> key down and click on each appropriate name until all are highlighted.
 - b. If a new defendant is being added to the amended complaint, click [New Party] and add the new party. Continue to add as many new defendants as needed.
