Re: Request for Service of Process on Defendant, the Russian Federation, in Yukos Capital Limited v. The Russian Federation, No. 1:22-cv-00798

Dear Clerk of the Court:

On behalf of Plaintiff Yukos Capital Limited ("Yukos Capital") in the above-captioned matter, we write to request that you take all necessary steps, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1608(a)(3), to effect service on Defendant, the Russian Federation ("Russia"). As further explained herein, in light of current international circumstances that impede direct shipment of documents to Russia from the United States, we ask that you dispatch the required service materials to the head of Russia's Ministry of Foreign Affairs by way of delivery to a foreign courier service capable of delivery to Russia.

Section 1608(a)(3) requires "sending a copy of the summons and complaint and a notice of suit, together with a translation of each into the official language of the foreign state, by any form of mail requiring a signed receipt, to be addressed and dispatched by the clerk of the court to the head of the ministry of foreign affairs of the foreign state concerned." To that end, we will file this letter ~~electronically~~ and then deliver to the Office of the Clerk the following:

- (1) one copy of the Affidavit Requesting Foreign Mailing (including this letter);
- (2) one copy of the Notice of Electronic Filing of the Affidavit Requesting Foreign Mailing;
- (3) one copy of the summons, complaint (as well as additional documents filed at the time the case was opened), notice of suit, and Russian translations thereof;
- (4) one DHL shipment container; and
- (5) one DHL International Shipment Waybill.

Section 1608(a)(3) requires that copies of the requisite documents “be addressed and dispatched by the clerk of the court to the head of [Russia’s] ministry of foreign affairs.” However, following Russia’s invasion of Ukraine, DHL announced that its “inbound services to Russia . . . have been suspended, which is why we are also not accepting shipments to [Russia] until further notice.” DHL, Service Suspensions Russia and Belarus, <https://tinyurl.com/3ps82w3p> (attached hereto as Exhibit A). Other major U.S. mail carriers have likewise suspended mail delivery to Russia.¹ Due to these extenuating circumstances, the accompanying Affidavit Requesting Foreign Mailing asks for copies of the summons, complaint (as well as additional documents filed at the time the case was opened), notice of suit, and Russian translations thereof to be dispatched to the head of Russia’s Ministry of Foreign Affairs by way of Condor Speditions Transport GmbH+Co (“Condor”)—an Austria-based provider of courier services that continues to deliver shipments to Russia. To that end, we ask that you dispatch the documents by DHL for delivery to Condor, so that Condor may then deliver the documents to “the head of [Russia’s] ministry of foreign affairs” by a “form of mail requiring a signed receipt.” § 1608(a)(3). We have apprised Condor of our request to this Office and they are prepared to receive any forthcoming shipment of documents.

Re: Request for Service of Process on Defendant Ministry of Information and Security of the Islamic Republic of Iran in John Doe et al. v. Islamic Republic of Iran, et al., Civil Action No. 08-0540-JDB (D.D.C.)

Dear Clerk of Court:

On behalf of the plaintiffs in the above-captioned matter, we are writing to request that you take all necessary steps, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1608(a)(4) and 1608(e), to effect service on Defendant Ministry of Information and Security of the May 9, 2013 Order (“Order”) and accompanying Memorandum Opinion (“Memorandum Opinion”) in the above-captioned matter.

Background

Your office previously has assisted plaintiffs with service of various documents in this matter pursuant to provisions of 28 U.S.C. § 1608.

First, on June 23, 2009, we requested service of the First Amended Complaint through your office pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1608(a)(3). We noted that service could not be made pursuant to either 28 U.S.C. §§ 1608(a)(1) or 1608(a)(2). Therefore, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1608(a)(3), your office dispatched a copy of the summons, First Amended Complaint, and a notice of suit, together with a translation of each into Farsi (the official language of the Islamic Republic of Iran), to Defendants Islamic Republic of Iran (“Iran”) and its Ministry of Information Security (“MOIS”) on June 24, 2009.

Next, as Defendants Islamic Republic of Iran and its Ministry of Information and Security failed to respond, we wrote to your office on July 31, 2009, requesting that the Clerk dispatch the alternative means of service provided for under 28 U.S.C. § 1608(a)(4), which applies when “service cannot be made within 30 days” under 28 U.S.C. § 1608(a)(3). On August 5, 2009, your office dispatched a copy of the summons, First Amended Complaint, and a notice of suit, together with a translation of each into Farsi, to Defendants Islamic Republic of Iran and its Ministry of Information and Security. No response ever was received from Defendants, and on January 29, 2010, the Clerk entered default against Defendants Islamic Republic of Iran and its Ministry of Information and Security.

Then, as there were subsequent amendments to the complaint, we again asked for assistance with service. On February 27, 2012, Plaintiffs filed a Fifth Amended Complaint. We wrote to your office on May 24, 2012, requesting service of the Fifth Amended Complaint pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1608(a)(4). Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1608(a)(4), on May 25, 2012, your office dispatched a copy of the summons, Fifth Amended Complaint, and a notice of suit, together with a translation of each into Farsi, to the U.S. Department of State for service on Defendants Islamic Republic of Iran and its Ministry of Information and Security.

Finally, we requested assistance with service of the judgment in the above-captioned matter. On May 9, 2013, Judge John D. Bates issued a Memorandum Opinion and an Order entering judgment for the plaintiffs. Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1608(e), which requires a copy of any default judgment to be sent to a foreign state or political subdivision defendant in the manner prescribed for service of the summons and complaint in 28 U.S.C. § 1608, we wrote to your office on July 17, 2013 requesting assistance with service of the Memorandum Opinion, the Order, and a notice of default judgment, together with a translation of each into Farsi, to Defendants Islamic Republic of Iran and its Ministry of Information and Security pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1608(a)(4) and 1608(e). That same day, your office dispatched a copy of the Memorandum Opinion, the Order, and a notice of default judgment, together with a translation of each into Farsi, to the U.S. Department of State for service on Defendants Islamic Republic of Iran and its Ministry of Information and Security.

Request for Assistance with Service

On November 24, 2020, Judge John D. Bates issued an order in the above-captioned matter noting that, despite our request for service of the May 25, 2012 Memorandum Opinion and Order on both Defendants Islamic Republic of Iran and its Ministry of Information and Security, and your office's dispatch of documents in response to that request, the State Department's filing "only reflect that the relevant papers were transmitted to Iran," and the Court thus had "no proof that plaintiffs' judgment was served on MOIS as well." Order, Nov. 24, 2020, ECF 119.

Accordingly, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1608(e), which requires a copy of any default judgment to be sent to a foreign state or political subdivision defendant in the manner prescribed for service of the summons and complaint in 28 U.S.C. § 1608, we hereby request your assistance in serving the Order and Memorandum Opinion on Defendant Ministry of Information and Security of Iran under 28 U.S.C. § 1608(a)(4).

Under 28 U.S.C. § 1608(a)(4), the Clerk of the Court shall send two copies of the pleading, together with a translation into Farsi, “by any form of mail requiring signed receipt, to be addressed and dispatched by the clerk of the court to the Secretary of State in Washington, District of Columbia, to the attention of the Director of Special Consular Services.” The Secretary of State shall then take steps to effect service through diplomatic channels.

In light of the foregoing, we have enclosed for service on Defendant Ministry of Information and Security of Iran (1) two copies of the May 9, 2013 Order; (2) two copies of the accompanying Memorandum and Opinion; (3) two copies of the Notice of Default Judgment (attached to each of which is a copy of the Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act); (4) two copies of each of the foregoing documents translated into Farsi, the official language of the Islamic Republic of Iran; and (5) a cashier’s check for $2,275.00 made payable to the U.S. Embassy in Bern, Switzerland.

Please take the necessary steps to dispatch these materials to effect service on Defendant Ministry of Information and Security of Iran pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1608(a)(4) and 1608(e). In light of the statutory requirement, service should be attempted by certified United States mail, return receipt requested, addressed to:

U.S. Department of State
Office of Legal Affairs (CA/OCS/L, SA-17, 10th Floor)
Director of Consular Services
Attention: Mr. Jared Hess
2201 Street N.W.
Washington, DC 20522-1710

We have enclosed a pre-paid mailing envelope. If you have any questions or require additional information, please contact my colleague, Emily Alban, at (202) 624-2718.

Thank you for your assistance in this matter.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Ms. Davis:

In connection with the above-captioned case, which was filed on December 8, 2017, we are writing to request that you take all necessary steps, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1608(a)(3), to effect service in this matter on Defendant The State of Qatar and Defendant The Embassy of the State of Qatar at the following address:

H.E. Sheikh Mohammed bin Abdulrahman bin Jassim Al-Thani

Ministry of Foreign Affairs
Ambassadors St, Al Mirqab Tower

Service could not be made pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1608(a)(1) and 1608(a)(2), for no special arrangement for service exists between Plaintiff and Defendants under 28 U.S.C. § 1608(a)(1), and service cannot be made pursuant to the applicable international convention on service of judicial documents under 28 U.S.C. § 1608(a)(2), because The State of Qatar currently is not applying the Hague Convention on the Service Abroad of Judicial and Extrajudicial Documents in Civil or Commercial Matters in relations to the United States.

In such circumstances, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1608(a)(3), the Clerk of the Court shall send a copy of the Summons and Complaint and a notice of suit, together with a translation of each (in this case an Arabic translation), "by any form of mail requiring a signed receipt, to be addressed and dispatched by the clerk of the court to the head of the ministry of foreign affairs of the foreign state concerned."

Accordingly, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1608(a)(3), I have enclosed: (1) one copy of the Complaint; (2) one copy of the Summons; (3) one copy of the Notice of Suit and attached Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act (FSIA); (4) one copy of the Affidavit Requesting Foreign Mailing for each Defendant; (5) one copy of each document translated into Arabic, the official language of The State of Qatar; and ECF proof of filing for the Affidavit Requesting Foreign Mailing for each Defendant. Also, enclosed is the necessary DHL pre-paid addressed envelope, signature required, to the Minister of Foreign Affairs for The State of Qatar.

Please take the necessary steps to dispatch these materials immediately to effect service on Defendant The State of Qatar and Defendant The Embassy of the State of Qatar pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1608(a)(3).

Re: Cedric M. Brown, et al. v. Islamic Republic of Iran, 1:21-cv-01308-TNM

Dear Ms. Caesar:

I am writing regarding the Court's request for transmittal of a Summons, Complaint, Notice of Designation of Related Civil Cases Pending, and Notice of Suit to the Islamic Republic of Iran pursuant to 28 U.S.C. Section 1608(a)(4) as a defendant in the above referenced lawsuit.

Because the United States does not maintain diplomatic relations with the Government of Iran, the Department of State is assisted by the Foreign Interests Section of the Embassy of Switzerland in Tehran in delivering these documents to the Iranian Ministry of Foreign Affairs. The documents were delivered to the Iranian Ministry of Foreign Affairs under cover of diplomatic note No. 1010-IE dated March 1, 2022 and delivered on March 2, 2022. A certified copy of the diplomatic note is enclosed.

Sincerely,

Jared N. Hess

NOTICE OF FAILED SERVICE UNDER 28 U.S.C. § 1608(a)(3)

Plaintiffs, through counsel, hereby notify the Court that the efforts to service Defendants The Islamic Republic of Iran (“Iran”), The Islamic Revolutionary Guard Corps (“IRGC”), and Iranian Ministry of Intelligence & Security (“MOIS), pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1608(a)(3), have failed either because the Defendants rejected Plaintiffs’ attempt to serve them, or Iranian Customs has refused to release the service packages for delivery in Tehran, Iran. See Exhibits 1-3.

In January 2019, Plaintiffs were advised by DHL that they no longer ship packages from the United States to Iran under any currently available U.S. Treasury Office of Foreign Assets Control (“OFAC”) General License.¹

Since service of process was not available through DHL, Plaintiffs initiated service of process on the above-listed Defendants on June 20, 2019, utilizing the United States Postal Service's ("USPS") Registered Return Receipt First Class International mailing services.

The USPS tracking data confirms that the service packages addressed to the three above-listed Defendants left Washington, D.C. on June 25, 2019. The service package for the IRGC arrived in New York on June 28, 2019 and was released from United States Customs on July 2, 2019. The service packages for Iran and MOIS arrived in New York prior to July 2, 2019 and were released from United States Customs on July 2, 2019. All three service packages arrived at the Imam Khomeini Airport in Tehran, Iran on July 5, 2019. The USPS does not provide further tracking data because it does not perform international tracking services for Registered Mail in destination countries.

However, according to data collected and provided by the National Post Office of the Islamic Republic of Iran a/k/a “IRI Post Company” (“IRI”), the service packages for the IRGC and MOIS arrived at the Iranian Customs office in Tehran, Iran, on July 7, 2019 and the service package for Iran arrived at the Iranian Customs office in Tehran, Iran on July 9, 2019.

After arriving in Iran, IRI made an attempt to deliver the service packages for Iran and the IRGC to the Iranian Minister of Foreign Affairs, Mr. Mohammad Javad Zarif, at the Ministry of Foreign Affairs located at Imam Khomeini Street, Imam Khomeini Square, Tehran, Iran, 1136914811.

Both packages were refused by the recipient at the final destination.

Since arriving in Iran on July 7, 2019, the service package for MOIS arrived in Iranian Customs on July 7, 2019, but has not yet been released for further delivery.

Plaintiffs have made a diligent effort to serve Defendants Iran, IRGC, and MOIS pursuant to 28 U.S.C. 1608(a)(3). Plaintiffs’ attempt to effectuate service of process has exceeded thirty days. These efforts have failed.

Therefore, Plaintiffs now intend to proceed to initiate service of process on these specific Defendants under 28 U.S.C. § 1608(a)(4) and shall file the appropriate materials with the Clerk requesting its assistance, as required.

Dated: August 23, 2019.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Christopher G. Paulos
