NOTICE TO THE CLASS OF PLAINTIFFS' MOTION FOR AN AWARD OF ATTORNEYS' FEES AND EXPENSES

Pursuant to Rule 23(h)(1) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, notice is hereby given to the members of the Plaintiff class in the above-captioned matter that, on May 30, 2025, the attorneys representing the Plaintiff class in this case filed Plaintiffs' Motion for Attorneys' Fees and Expenses [Dkt. No. 525], requesting an award of attorneys' fees and expenses totaling $22,689,060.25. If the motion is granted, the fees and expenses will be paid by the District of Columbia. Class members may review Plaintiffs' motion and file with the Court any objections that they may have.

Determining if you are a class member. The Plaintiff class includes people with physical disabilities who have received D.C. Medicaid-funded long-term care services in a nursing facility for 90 or more consecutive days, are eligible for Medicaid covered home and community-based long-term care services that would enable them to live in the community, and would prefer to live in the community instead of a nursing facility but need the District of Columbia to provide transition assistance to facilitate their access to long-term care services in the community.

Class members' right to review the motion. If you believe that you or someone for whom you are responsible is a class member, and you would like to review the fee application that is at issue, you may contact counsel for Plaintiffs or Defendant using the following contact information:

Counsel for Plaintiffs: Todd A. Gluckman, Terris, Pravlik & Millian, LLP, 1816 12th Street, NW, Suite 303, Washington, DC 20009, (202) 204-8482, tgluckman@tpmlaw.com.

Counsel for Defendant: Mateya B. Kelley, Assistant Attorney General, 400 Sixth Street, NW, Suite 10100, Washington, DC 20001, (202) 724-7854, mateya.kelley@dc.gov.

Class members' right to object to the motion. Class members have the right to file objections to Plaintiffs' motion. The Court will consider your views. To object, you must send a signed letter stating that you object to Plaintiffs' Motion for Attorneys' Fees and Expenses in Brown v. District of Columbia, Civil Action No. 10-2250 (PLF). Be sure to include your name, address, telephone number, email address (if any), and signature. Set out in clear language the reasons why you object. Your objection, if any, must be mailed or delivered to all of the following addresses such that it is postmarked or received no later than July 31, 2025, which is 45 days from the date that the notice was posted on the Court's website.

Court: Clerk of the Court, United States District Court for the District of Columbia, 333 Constitution Avenue, N.W., Washington, DC 20001.

Counsel for Plaintiffs: Todd A. Gluckman (contact information listed above).

Counsel for Defendant: Mateya B. Kelley (contact information listed above).
