UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

IN RE RESUMPTION OF NATURALIZATION AND ADMISSIONS
CEREMONIES FOLLOWING
RESTORATION OF APPROPRIATIONS

Standing Order No. 25-60 (JEB)

Chief Judge James E. Boasberg

ORDER

On October 20, 2025, this Court suspended naturalization ceremonies and in-person attorney-admissions ceremonies to avoid a violation of the Antideficiency Act during the recent government shutdown. See Standing Order No. 25-56, In Re Suspension of Naturalization and Admissions Ceremonies During Government Shutdown, October 20, 2025 (JEB). Government-wide appropriations were restored on November 12, 2025. Accordingly,

1. Naturalization Ceremonies. The authority conferred on the United States Citizenship and Immigration Services by Standing Order 25-56 is terminated effective November 24, 2025. Naturalization ceremonies shall resume on the regular schedule; and
2. Attorney-Admission Ceremonies. In-person attorney-admissions ceremonies shall resume on the regular schedule. Further information, including the monthly deadlines for submission of petitions for admission, may be found on the Court's website.

SO ORDERED.

James E. Boasberg
Chief Judge
