LCrR 24.1

JURY

SELECTION AND ASSIGNMENT.

(a) SELECTION AND ASSIGNMENT

Grand and petit jurors shall be selected at random in accordance with a plan adopted by the Court and available from the Jury Office. Petit jurors shall be assigned to a single jury pool and reassigned for service upon the requisition of each trial judge.

(b) PUBLIC RELEASE OF JUROR INFORMATION

- (1) Petit Jurors: Officers of the Court and other parties who have access to juror names through the Court, including parties, attorneys, and other court personnel, shall not disclose nNames of prospective and sitting petit jurors shall not be disclosed to the public outside of open court, except upon order of the Court. A request for disclosure of petit juror names to the public must be made to the presiding judge.
- (2) Grand Jurors: As matters occurring before a grand jury are secret, and records, orders, and subpoenas relating to grand jury proceedings are maintained under seal, the release of the identity of grand jurors to the public or to the media presents significant legal and other issues. Accordingly, to protect and preserve grand jury secrecy, no disclosure is permitted to the public or to the media of the names, addresses, or telephone numbers of any member of a grand jury, except upon order of the Court. Should a request for information concerning the identity of a grand juror arise, the Court will determine whether the disclosure of such information is warranted, consistent with the provisions of FED. R. CRIM. P. 6(e) and 28 U.S.C. § 1867(f).

LCvR 47.1

JURY

(a) SELECTION AND ASSIGNMENT.

Grand and petit Petit jurors shall be selected at random in accordance with a plan adopted by the Court and available from the Jury Office. Petit jurors shall be assigned to a single jury pool and reassigned for service upon the requisition of each trial judge.

(b) PUBLIC RELEASE OF JUROR INFORMATION

Officers of the Court and other parties who have access to juror names through the Court, including parties, attorneys, and other court personnel, shall not disclose Nnames of prospective and sitting petit jurors shall not be disclosed to the public outside of open court, except upon order of the Court. A request for disclosure of petit juror names to the public must be made to the presiding judge.

(b)(c) NOTIFICATION OF SETTLEMENT IN CIVIL JURY CASES.

Whenever any civil action scheduled for jury trial is settled or otherwise resolved by the parties after the final pretrial conference, counsel shall notify the Clerk of the resolution of the action promptly and no later than one business day prior to the day on which the trial is scheduled to commence. In the event that the action is resolved by the parties less than one business day prior to the scheduled trial date, counsel shall notify the Clerk as soon as practicable after resolution of the action. The Court may assess against the settling parties any juror costs incurred if the parties fail to provide notification as set forth in this Rule, unless good cause for such failure is shown. Any such costs shall be assessed equally among the settling parties unless otherwise ordered by the Court.

COMMENT TO LCvR 47.1: This Rule is intended to address situations where the parties resolve a civil action shortly before a scheduled jury trial. While the Court encourages the settlement of cases, budgetary constraints require that increased attention be paid to jury utilization practices. This Rule requires the parties to notify the Clerk of any resolution as soon as possible in order to avoid the unnecessary cost to the Court as well as the inconvenience to jurors that result when jurors are required to appear for a case that will not go forward as scheduled. To the extent available, the Clerk in this situation should be the Deputy Clerk assigned to the presiding judge. The Rule authorizes the Court to assess juror costs against the parties for a violation of the Rule.
